PATENT CORPSE PRESERVER. HE attention of the public is respectfully invited to this newly invented apparatus. The object for which it is intended is perfectly to preserve corpses from decay for any length of time, without being any wise offensive to delicacy, or unseemly in appearance. The value of such a machine cannot be estimated but by those tender feelings which long for the preservation of a departed friend; and among those who have been compelled to use t on account of the fast decaying of their friends, a general and pleasing satisfaction has been given; for none can speak too highly of such an important and useful invention. Benevolent institutions and all others who desire to delay funerals until the ar rival of distant relatives, or to make suitable preparation for interment, can, by use of this machine, preserve them for weeks in The undersigned has secured the patent for Marion county of this apolis.
